MY DEAR PEOPLE:

"Joy" and "Peace" are the words we associate with the Feast of Easter. If we prepare properly for the Feast, they will no longer be merely words of description, but symbols of real experience with the Risen Christ in our Easter Communion.

Follow the days in Holy Week according to the Church's Liturgy, as you will see it outlined on the opposite page. It is all a part of a great whole—the Church's preparation of her children for the Queen of Feasts.

You are called to your Confession before this Great Day. Come in loving obedience, and you will find "Joy." Come in true penitence, and you will find "Peace." Easter will then crown your offering with His "Joy," which no man taketh from you, and His "Peace," which the world can neither give nor take away.

"Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us, therefore let us keep the Feast."

Affectionately,

Rector.

DEAR FRIENDS:—

Easter is the Queen Feast of the Church Year. And rightly so, for if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins; then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished: If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable: But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

Lent has been your preparation time for this great day. And we must keep the day, as a family, about the Table of the Risen Lord, where He reveals Himself to us in the Breaking of Bread. The Church bids all who truly and earnestly repent of their sins to draw near with faith and take this Holy Sacrament to their comfort. And by taking, Holy Church means appropriating and co-operating with the Divine Gift.

The Great Forty Days that follow Easter are in their way as important as the Forty Days that precede it. We need this time in which to make the Fruits of the Paschal Feast a real part of ourselves and ourselves a part of them; and to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness, that we may always serve Him in pureness of living and truth.

Therefore let us keep the Feast. Offer Him your hearts and souls cleansed and absolved from every stain of sin; draw near to receive the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar; and bring the further results of your Lenten sacrifice and self-denial, a generous thank-offering, to Him who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Faithfully and Affectionately,

Rector.

DEAR FRIENDS:—

Easter is the greatest feast in the Church Calendar because it commemorates the triumphant event in the earthly life of our Blessed Lord that gives credence and vitality to everything that went before the Empty Tomb, and that has happened since in the Catholic Church. "If Christ be not risen from the dead, then is our preaching vain. . . . ye are yet in your sins."

We have had a good Lent in the Parish, and for that we are thankful. A well kept Lent should mean a joyous Easter. And a well kept Easter should mean a joyous life throughout the year. The forty days of Lent have enabled us to learn the lessons of penitence, and to accomplish some degree of success in the amendment of life. So Eastertide has its forty days, in which we are to appropriate the lessons of Lent and the Sacramental Gifts of the Paschal Feast, and bring forth in ourselves the fruits of the "Risen Life." Let us not neglect this present opportunity. The Great Forty Days, filled with Easter Peace, culminate in Pentecost, when all is sealed with the Seven-fold Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

May the lessons learned in Lent, and the grace received in your Easter Communion, make you, in the power of the Holy Spirit, faithful witnesses of the Resurrection.

Faithfully and affectionately,

Rector.

PHILADELPHIA

MY DEAR FRIENDS:

Lent has been a time of re-establishment in the way of godliness. First, by doing penance for past sin. Second, by using the grace of absolution for the amendment of life. Now you should be approaching Easter in sincerity and in truth, making yourself as worthy as you can by God's help for a devout Communion on the Queen of Feasts.

God wants a clean heart and a pure intention from each one. Then He wants a worthy offering—evidence of your Lenten self-denial—a tithe of your income—an extra gift of love. The clean heart, the pure intention, the fairness of the offering, these are known only to God, since they are given to Him alone. Give of yourself as deeply and as richly as you can, remembering that we love Him because He first loved us, and that while we were yet in our sins, Christ died for us.

Try to carry on after Easter with the same earnestness and enthusiasm which have characterized your Lent. As you have prepared for Easter over a period of forty days, so use the Great Forty Days until the Ascension and Pentecost for perceiving within yourself the fruit of the Lord's redemption and identifying yourself more completely with the Risen and Glorified Christ.

With the assurance of my prayers, and wishing you every joy and blessing in this Paschal-Tide,

Affectionately your Friend and Pastor,

MY DEAR PEOPLE:—

The fulness of your Easter Joy will depend upon your vigilance by the Cross. Your gratefulness for God's gift of absolution will be in proportion to the penitence for your sins. The preparation for your Easter Communion must begin now, so it is appropriate for me to address an Easter Letter to you in Passion-tide.

You have the schedule for Holy Week and its many services before you. These various services form one great whole in the Church's scheme of setting before you the Mysteries of our Lord's Redemption. The more closely you follow them, the more fully will you appreciate the great Sacrifice of the Cross and the Love of the Crucified.

Come to the Easter Feast after a faithful watch by the Cross. Come to the Easter Feast, released from your sins by virtue of the Cross, and empowered with the new life our Lord brings to all through His Resurrection from the dead. Come to the Easter Feast with a gift of love, a gift of sacrifice, for our Lord and His Church, in gratefulness for the Love with which He loves us all.

"And may the God of Peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep.....make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight....."

DEAR PARISHIONER:

In a few days the light of a glorious Resurrection will burst upon a sin-stained and war-torn world, and in the hearts of men everywhere on land and sea and in the air, will echo the joyful strains of the heavenly alleluia.

In the remembrance of what took place on that first Easter Morn, no evil can overcome us, no sorrow crush us, no failure cause despair.

Gladly, then, do we resign ourselves to the trials and tribulations of these days, knowing that the hour will come when our sorrow will be turned into joy and our faith into reality. "God forbid that I should glory, save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ."

We can best manifest our gratitude for all that our Saviour suffered for us by making a humble confession of our sins and receiving Holy Communion on Easter Sunday.

Wishing you the peace and joy of a very happy Easter-tide, I am

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Dear Parishioner:

"Peace be to you!"

These words, the very first with which the Risen Saviour greeted His assembled friends, contain the most fitting message we can extend to you on this glorious feast of Easter. Christ's Passion and Death and triumphal Resurrection are the assurance of peace if men and nations will accept them.

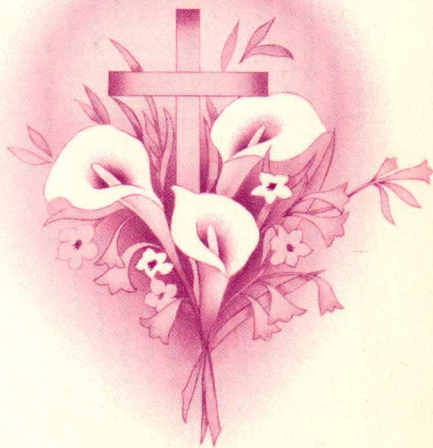

It is in Holy Communion that the Catholic enters fully into the joy of Easter. Therefore, celebrate Easter in the one way that will bring peace and happiness . . . a worthy reception of the Sacraments.

May the Risen Lord bless you and yours with that peace and joy that the world cannot give, and bring your loved ones home safe and sound, is the prayerful wish of

Dear Parishoner:

There is no more beautiful greeting than a wish for your peace, happiness and spiritual contentment at Easter. These are the blessings that Our Saviour's Own Presence would radiate upon you if you could meet Him as Mary Magdalene met Him in the dawn of the first Easter Morning.

Because these graces flow from the very love of Our Risen Saviour, this folder brings to you, from your Church, the wish that this peace, this happiness, this spiritual contentment may be yours.

May these blessings accompany you when you receive the Sacraments, when you attend the Easter Mass, when you take part in the Easter Ceremonies; may they remain with you and become a part of you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

DEAR PARISHONER:—

The happiness of Easter rests upon your faith. We believe that Jesus rose from the dead as He promised. We rejoice in this assurance, that He is "The Way, the Truth and the Life." Unless your Easter Joy is founded upon this conviction, it will not endure.

Countless are the attempts that have been made to disprove the divinity of Christ and to discredit His bodily resurrection. The pages of history are filled with man's fruitless efforts in this regard, but the ancient Creeds still stand, the Rock of our Faith is unmovable; with confidence we sing our Alleluias!

As the word of the Resurrection spread from the holy women to the disciples and Peter, and down through every age to the present, so can this Easter Joy continue with you and fill every aspect of your life. When you so live as to bear your definite witness to this faith, the happiness of Easter Peace is your priceless possession. May such a rich treasure be yours this Easter Day and ever after.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

DEAR PARISHIONER:—

The dawn of Easter softens and enhances the memory of the terrible pain and suffering of our Blessed Saviour, which we have been recalling and commemorating in the Liturgy of Holy Souls.

And with Easter, our souls, provided that God is reigning in them, are renewed with spiritual courage and strength to face the trials ahead, the problems of daily life and living, the anxieties of the world about us. This Blessed Feast brings home to each of us the profound fact that the sufferings of our Redeemer were necessary, in order to secure for us the Hope of His Glorious Resurrection, and the abiding Peace of His Risen Life.

May your hearts be softened from pain and anxiety through the Blessings of this Easter-tide, and may they find in the Resurrection of our Crucified Lord and Saviour, the consolation and the peace that He alone can give in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

The Easter Peace of the Risen Lord be with you always.

Affectionately in Him,

DEAR FRIENDS:

With the close of a Holy Lent we welcome the joyous Season of Easter. Those who have served God well in Lent have a special privilege to rejoice with the Risen Saviour; and for those who have failed in their Lent there is still time to prepare for the blessings of the Paschal Feast.

Easter Day, the Feast of Our Divine Lord's Resurrection, brings joy to all the hosts of heaven and earth, for it is the assurance of the return of grace to the souls of men and the certainty of the fulfillment of Christ's promise of eternal life. "Peace be unto you," is His Easter greeting. He wants each one to possess His peace and know its joy. The only true peace for a Catholic is to be with Jesus. No one who hears the personal appeal of Our Lord will neglect His invitation.

Come to your Confession, return to your Church, receive your Communion, and enjoy the peace of God, His peace of mind and heart and soul, and keep this peace secure by walking faithfully from henceforth in the footsteps of His Risen Life.

May this glad and joyous Easter-tide bring you a new sense of the glory of the Risen Lord as you come to Him and He comes to you in the Easter Sacraments.

Devotedly yours in Christ,

Franklin Joiner

DEAR FRIENDS:—

Another Easter is at hand with its Blessings, and with the Church we recall the glorious Resurrection of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ on that first Easter morning. Christ's bodily Resurrection, the crowning miracle of his life and of our Holy Religion, is his victory and ours over sin and death. His cruel sufferings and ignominious death, so dramatically set before us in the Liturgy of Holy Week, seemed to most people of his day to have doomed to failure his Divine Mission. But what appeared on Good Friday to be defeat, was known on Easter Day in his mighty Resurrection to be a triumphant and everlasting Victory.

Our Blessed Lord's Resurrection is not only a symbol of our hope, it is the source and only assurance of our hope. We too are bound in this world to have our Gethsemane and our Mount Calvary. We suffer them in the sins and temptations and problems of our individual lives; we pass through them as a people in the dreadful wars and similar calamities that are thrust upon us; we bear them as a Church today against the persecution of Communists and Heretics. But we will have our Resurrection most certainly if we live faithfully with Christ and do his Holy Will.

The purification of your souls in the Sacrament of Penance and a worthy reception during Easter-tide of our Risen Lord in the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist will convince you of the true peace of Easter. Cherish this Peace that he gives. Share this Peace that you receive. Live it, too, that all men everywhere may feel it, that the whole world may be filled with the Paschal Gift, the gift of God, which passeth all understanding.

Devotedly yours in the Risen Lord,

Franklin J. Jones — Pastor.

DEAR FRIENDS:—

Easter commemorates the victory of Our Lord Jesus Christ over every worldly evil, including sin and death. His Resurrection from the dead places the seal of divinity upon His Church, upon His teaching. That is the reason for the Church at Easter singing with joy and gladness her Alleluias and her Hymns of Triumph.

How grateful you should be to possess this glorious faith. How proud you should be to profess this faith; to live this faith; to support this faith generously and to help in spreading it throughout the world.

Such pride in your Church will lead you to take your full part in the Solemnities of Holy Week, will draw you in penitence to the Confessional, and prompt you to receive Holy Communion on Easter Sunday, April 5th. By so doing you will prepare your soul for a spiritual resurrection and for our Lord's true Easter blessing.

Father Collins and Father Davis join with me in the prayer that the Risen Saviour, in the Easter Mass, may renew in you, in your loved ones, and in all those you hold dear, the divine virtues of faith, hope and charity, so that you may embrace and ever hold fast the fruits of His Redemption.

Affectionately yours in the Risen Lord,

Dear Friends:—

Easter commemorates the victory of Our Lord Jesus Christ over every worldly evil including sin and death. From the mid-afternoon of the first Good Friday until the dawn of Easter morning, the world lay at the feet of God in a spiritual black-out. Jesus Christ, the Light of the World, had left it, having laid down His life as a Sacrifice to redeem you from sin, to merit for you the Absolution of His Priest in the Sacrament of Confession, to lift from your souls the appalling spiritual black-out of mortal sin, to enable you to live day after day in the state of sanctifying Grace.

Each of you has personally benefited by this Holy Sacrifice of the Cross; each of you should, therefore, make the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass your whole-hearted act of Easter thanksgiving. How grateful and proud you should be to possess this victorious faith! If that pride is a proper pride it will lead you to take part in the Solemnities of Holy Week and will draw you to the Altar for Holy Communion on Easter Day. Such an observance is your best preparation for a glorious resurrection at the last day.

But to offer Holy Mass worthily and to receive the Blessed Sacrament worthily you must be in the state of sanctifying Grace. Will you add your Holy Week prayers to mine that not a single parishioner of S. Clement's Church will spend Easter Day in the dreary spiritual black-out of mortal sin, but in the company of Him who hath called us out of darkness into His marvelous light.

Wishing you the peace and joy of a happy Easter-tide,
Affectionately in the Risen Lord,

Franklin Joiner — Pastor.

Dear Friends:—

The days of Holy Week are full of meaning for every Christian man and woman, and days that are rich in grace for every devout Catholic. They speak to us so forcefully and so graphically of Christ's great love and mercy and compassion for us. He loves us even unto death, the death of the Cross. Let your attendance at the Solemnities of Holy Week be an evidence of your deep appreciation and gratefulness to our Lord for all He has done out of love for you.

The reception of Holy Communion, devoutly prepare for, on Holy Thursday if possible, and most assuredly on Easter morning, will bring true Easter joy and peaceful happiness into your hearts, such as our Risen Lord brought to His despondent and dejected Apostles and Disciples on that first Easter Day so long ago.

May the Risen Saviour, on this Easter Morn, renew in you, in your loved ones, in all those you hold dear, the divine virtues of Faith, Hope and Charity, in order that you may enjoy to the fullest, the fruits of His redemption. Open your hearts to the Risen Lord by a worthy reception of Holy Communion on Easter morning.

Father Renfrew and Father Collins join with me in the prayer that the blessing and peace of our Risen Lord may come into your hearts and homes on this Day of days, and abide with you always.

Affectionately yours in the Pascal Gifts,

NATIVITY OF S. JOHN BAPTIST, 8 P. M.
Litany of the Saints and Benediction

SUMMER SCHEDULE BEGINS JULY 1

MY DEAR PARISHIONERS:

We approach the Queen of Feasts in a mood of distinctive joy this year. One hundred years ago the charter members of the recently organized S. Clement's Church were preparing to celebrate Easter for the first time as a parish. How they kept the day we probably shall never know. The new building was hardly above ground level. No matter how or where they celebrated, we may be sure the pioneering parishioners offered their praise and thanksgiving to the Risen Lord.

Behind us is the record of a century of love and loyalty to our Blessed Lord and His Holy Church, of stalwart upholding of the Catholic Faith,—the record of the prayers and sacrifices on devoted souls, and of the counsel and toils of many priests. And now we are about to celebrate Easter of our 100th year. The feast itself is reason for unlimited rejoicing,—the commemoration of Our Lord's Victory over sin and death and the cause of all Christian hope and happiness. This year we add special thanksgiving for the lives of those who have laid our parochial foundation and given their best for the upbuilding of this household of the Faith. The notable history of our first century spurs us to a more zealous practice of the Faith for which they fought and to a greater rejoicing in our Catholic heritage.

I bid you to make a prayerful preparation for your Easter Holy Communion and to offer profound thanksgiving for the privileges that are yours. The Easter season is the time above all others for confession and absolution, that you may be the better prepared to receive your Lord at the Paschal Altar.

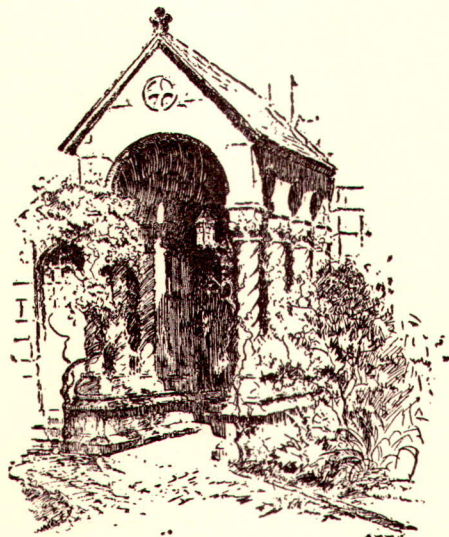

Your parish priests and the Mission Sisters join in wishing you a holy and happy Easter-tide.

Faithfully yours,

William Ellwell

My dear People:

Again we approach the Queen of Feasts!

Of all the feasts of the year this is the one of supreme joy because it is the commemoration of Our Lord's victory over all of the most terrifying temptations the world can offer and His glorious triumph over death. We do not need rose-colored glasses to see the happiness of the day. It is before us as unmistakable fact. Jesus was dead; now Jesus lives. He lives by conquering the power of death.

Whether the feast be celebrated in the crudest little chapel or the most magnificent cathedral, its significance is the same. It is the joy that rests on Our Lord's vindication of His claim to be the Son of God and it is the assurance He gives us that there is life beyond the grave. How fortunate we at S. Clement's are to have the complete observance of Holy Week to prepare for the festival. The solemnity of the days just preceding Easter gives us a background without which the gladness of the feast would be minimized. Last year all of the Holy Week services were very well attended and I anticipate that this year there will be even more people at the daily commemorations of the events at the end of Our Lord's earthly life. Lent has been so well kept that it is reasonable to expect Holy Week will be on a comparable plane.

With your thoughtful participation in the liturgy of Holy Thursday, Good-Friday and Holy Saturday, your "Alleluiah" on Easter will be an appropriate laudation of Our Savior,—a righteous cheer for His majestic victory. The two high points of your observance of the feast will be your receiving of Holy Communion and your assisting at the Solemn Mass of thanksgiving. Both are great privileges and your participating in both is your response to the greatest of all Christian festivals.

My prayer for each of you is that your prayers, your confessions, your part in the corporate worship during Holy Week will prepare you for a devout reception of the Blessed Sacrament on Easter Day and will reward you with God's richest blessings.

Father Davis and the Mission Sisters join me in wishing you a holy and most happy Easter Day.

Faithfully your Rector,

William Ellwell

Summer schedule begins July 1

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

With profound thanksgiving and reverend cheer we approach the Feast of feasts — the commemoration of the glorious Resurrection of Our Blessed Lord — Easter Day.

It is a time when we rejoice with Our Lord because of His victory over sin and death. His divine magnanimity prompts us to offer Him our utter adoration and love and to sing His praises. It is the Day of days to receive Christ our Passover in the Blessed Sacrament in order to share in His death and resurrection, to receive the grace of His life, and to seal our bond of unity with Him who was dead and rose again. Every Christian is bound to witness to the Resurrection; it is his happy privilege as well as obligation to do this. He bears witness by receiving His Risen Lord in the Blessed Eucharist on Easter Day or, if necessity demands postponement, within the season.

This year at S. Clement's the ancient hour for the First Mass will be restored and the faithful, like their forbears in early Christian centuries, will have opportunity of dedicating the first hour of the holy day to their Risen Lord by assistance at Midnight Mass. To participate in the Easter Vigil in the darkness of night, typifying the darkness of the old dispensation, will indeed be wonderful and awesome. The congregation is encouraged to attend, if possible, the 10:30 Vigil and make their Easter Holy Communion at midnight. The fast ought to be the same as that observed for the Midnight Mass of Christmas — at least three hours fast from solid food. I strongly urge all parishioners to advance beyond the line of minimal observance by returning to the Church for Solemn Mass at 11 and joining in the festival outpouring of thanksgiving and praise to Our Risen Lord.

My prayer for each of you is that your prayers, your confessions, your part in the corporate worship during Holy Week will move you to deeper love for Our Lord, prepare you for a devout reception of the Blessed Sacrament on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter, and bring to you God's richest blessing.

Father Davis, Father Ducker and the Mission Sisters join me in wishing you a holy and most happy Eastertide.

Faithfully your Rector,

William Ellwell

Symbols for Eastertide

✠ St. Matthew, winged man for Jesus' genealogy ✠ St. Mark, winged lion, since lion was an early symbol of the resurrection ✠ St. Luke, winged ox, symbol of sacrifice, the atonement of Jesus ✠ St. John, the eagle because in his gospel he writes with exalted vision of sublime mysteries ✠ All four evangelists have wings showing the Gospels go to all the lands of the earth ✠ The cross engrailed, shows thorny projections to express the suffering of our Lord.

'Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here; for He is risen, as He said.'

'Go your way, tell His disciples and Peter that He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see Him.'

'And it came to pass, as He sat at meat with them, He took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew Him.'

'Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.'
